Safe Blasted In Alta. Co-op

COWLEY, Alta., Sept. 15.—(CP)—Thirteen today escaped with $4,000 in cash and cheques after blasting open the safe of the Pioneer Co-op Co-operative here with nitroglycerine.

Entry to the building was gained through a rear window. The blast cracked the safe, shattered the windows and wrecked the interior of the frame building, tearing up the floor boards.

RCMP said they believed the safe was blown between midnight and 7 a.m. today. Residents of this town's New Past town were asked to notify police of any suspicious strangers seen in town.

The money was all in small bills and the cream cheques also were for small amounts. Police said they believe the thieves will dispose of the cheques without attempting to cash them.

2nd Bank Hit In Montreal

MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—(CP)—Two armed bandits today robbed a west end branch of the Royal Bank of Canada of $4,000 and escaped after beating a clerk with the butt of a gun.

DOPE RING BROKEN UP BY FARMER

PLAINVIEW, Neb., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Willis A. Bohi broke up a narcotics ring in his own feed lot this week.

When his hogs began to grow thin and wobble uncertainly about feed lots, Bohi launched a one-man investigation. At the back of the feed lot he found the hogs jumping in the air to get at the last few leaves near the top of a lush stand of marijuana plants.

After destroying the plants, Bohi said today his hogs were "getting back to normal."

Diapers For Baby Monkey Big Problem

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(UP)—Necessity has mothered the invention of a diaper for baby monkeys, the Lincoln Park Zoo reported today.

Sorrowful, a five-month-old Pallas monkey broke both her legs and an arm in a fall last week.

Zoologist Lear Grimmer took the handaged Simian home and put her to bed to convalesce. Then Grimmer's wife discovered that Sorrowful, like all infants, needed diapers.

The Grimmers called in zoo director R. Martin Perkins when it was discovered that Sorrowful's fall made conventional diapers impractical.

The three finally evolved a two-piece pair of three-cornered pants with a removable gusset.

2-Million-Watt Boost For City Power Urged

Purchase for $100,000 of two 1,000 kilowatt diesel generators said to be worth $170,000 was left at city commissioners' discretion last night by utilities committee.

The generators would be used in case of a simultaneous power failure of both city power and the Calgary Power company.

The purchase, from a plant at Vancouver, was recommended by Commissioner D. B. Menzies during discussion of a new agreement with Calgary Power Co. for inter-change of electrical energy.

POWER SOLD

The agreement provides for sale of power to Calgary Power in off-peak hours, under terms in effect all last winter, said Mr. Menzies.

At 1/10 cent per kilowatt, the city stands to make $60,000 during the winter, since the company thinks it will need 90 million kilowatts to conserve low water supplies at its dam.

Any extra labor or coal costs are taken into consideration, and if extra men are needed to generate any of the energy, the south company is billed direct.

Recent addition of a new generator at the power house, bringing total potential to 70,000 kilowatts, enables the city to provide the power, Mr. Menzies said.

Alderman Atholman Blais inquired if the city sure it is actually under no obligation to supply power at hours when Calgary Power says it needs it, but strictly

National Floor Wage Demanded

TLC Convention Asks 75 Cents Hourly Minimum

CALGARY, Sept. 16.—(CP)—A national minimum wage of at least 75 cents an hour was called for today by the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

A resolution adopted at the TLC's annual convention said such a minimum wage should be established because of high living costs increased worker productivity and need for better standards of living.

At present, minimum wage legislation is under provincial jurisdiction.

POSSIBLY HIGHER

Resolution said the minimum should be 75 cents "or such higher minimum as may be needed to purchase the normal requirements for the maintenance and welfare of our people."

The wage proposal ran into some objection. Robert Brown of the Printing Pressmen's Union in Toronto said workers should not depend on government legislation or wages but should get results through the labor movement.

"There's only one answer with a contract signed with people who can enforce it," agreed Robert Holmes, Winnipeg machinist delegate.

Harry Simon, Toronto fur worker, urged that governments have an obligation to provide a "decent" minimum wage, in supporting the resolution.

Frank Armstrong of Winnipeg, representing the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen declared there should be a national minimum "so that employers who exploit workers" must provide them with a fair living.

However, he said that federal legislation on a minimum wage would "set provincial governments on their ears."

The congress adopted a resolution extending federations to the labor movement of Israel.

A resolution calling on the federal government to award contracts only to unionized firms was adopted by the convention.

Another adopted resolution called for restoration of the payment of time-and-a-half to postal workers for overtime work, withdrawn during depression of the 1930s.

OVERTIME ASKED

Another resolution dealing with workers of the National Employment Service and Unemployment Insurance Commission asked that their overtime work be reduced and that they be paid recognized overtime rates.

The federal government also was called on to provide for all civil servants a maximum 40-hour, five-day week with a "differential" rate for night work.

Construction Crew Breaks Gas Line

Eleven men were injured in a $50,000 explosion which rocked downtown Edmonton about 8:40 a.m. today.

Caused by a construction crew when it broke a natural gas line, the blast seriously damaged premises of Northern Alberta Dairy Pool main plant at 106 avenue and 102 street.

INJURED WERE

Robert Gault, assistant manager of the plant, 1314-47 street, suffering from extensive burns, cuts from flying glass and shock.

Jack Stephenson, 1023-106 street, worker, shock.

Harry Cousin, 1040-147 street, truck driver, extensive burns and shock.

Manager Just Misses Injury

Russell "Barney" Stanley, 36-year-old general manager of Northern Alberta Dairy Pool, barely missed serious injury and possible blindness in the dairy explosion this morning.

Moments after the construction crane had hit the 3-inch natural gas line, employees informed manager Stanley.

He rose from his desk and just got to the door of his office on the way to see how serious the gasline threat was, when the terrific explosion rocked the building.

Two huge windows in his office made up of about 10 square feet of heavy glass, exploded into the center of the room.

Mr. Stanley's desk was covered under an inch of glass, and window fixtures crashed down on the seat he had just left.

"I consider it a miracle that I wasn't seriously hurt," he told the Bulletin.

Before firefighters had finished working in the plant several others had been made by other city crews in 16 and the gutted plant.

BUILDING IS FEARED MOVED BY EXPLOSION

Terrific blast which rocked Northern Alberta Dairy Pool today may have knocked the whole building off level.

Insurance investigators checking fire damage said construction experts will examine the building with levels to see how serious the explosion was.

Wall directly above the gas blast was moved almost an inch, and big crack was opened in plaster in one office.

Investigators said the whole building might have been moved.

FIREFIGHTERS attacked small blaze raging outside in addition to flaming dairy boiler room and milk drying room. Thousands of gallons of water, and thick smothering foamite chemical put fire out in one hour. Damage to building and butter and cream supplies may exceed $50,000.

TWISTED WRECKAGE—red basement of Dairy Pool after explosion and fire. Night shift worker Emil Marston, 10542-101 street, returned to have look at damage. Two-inch steel pipe serving as hand railing was bent right over stairs from force of gas explosion.

POURING POWDERED chemicals into stream of hoses was one device used by Fire Department to battle blaze in Northern Alberta Dairy Pool which resulted after gas explosion this morning. Blaze was confined to boiler room in basement of the dairy.

Auditorium Jeopardized

Only 18 people turned up for an important auditorium committee meeting Wednesday night and the inference has been made that this apparent indifference has put the quietus on the auditorium project for this year.

It is not the apathy of the Citizens' Auditorium Committee members nor of its affiliated organizations that places the auditorium in jeopardy, but the strange maneuvering of the city council in allocating an auditorium site on the civic centre in defiance of the town planning report, which says the auditorium should go south of Jasper between 100 and 109 streets.

Nor was it indifference to the auditorium project that kept these people away.

It was disgust with the city council for a precipitate and impulsive act of stubbornness that has done more to menace the prospect of an auditorium than anything.

Presumably these people reasoned, and with good cause, that there was little sense in pursuing an auditorium plan when the council had already ruined it by placing it in conflict with the more important town planning project.

Mayor Harry D. Ainley said if the auditorium built on the site of the old Edmonton may not get an auditorium for 20 years.

He is quite right. And the prospect that McDougall Church may close its doors to all non-church activities aggravates the seriousness of the situation.

But there is no reason why the bylaw cannot pass this year if those interested stop tearing their hair and get down to the business of reconciling the bylaw with the town planning report.

In short, there is no earthly reason why the auditorium bylaw cannot be adopted and passed providing for the structure, not on the civic centre, but on the site recommended by the town planning report.

Certainly the great majority of citizens is not going to vote for an auditorium if it disrupts town planning projects.

But these citizens will vote if it is, in fact, in line with town planning rules.

It is up to the council and the Citizens' Committee to iron out the discrepancy.

It has already been remarked by such authorities as Ettore Mazzoleni of Toronto that the assistance given by the Women's Musical Club to the young musicians of its community is something unique in this country.

Certainly it is a definitely commendable work and one in which every citizen can zealously share, to give opportunities for advanced study to those young artists who demonstrate ability.

The extent to which the Club can help young students this year depends upon the support given the Margolis concert Monday night.

Nominations to the bench in any Canadian court are of high public concern, because the machinery of the law is the most potent safeguard of Canadian liberties.

Thus, every appointment of the kind is of great and intimate importance to every citizen.

In this instance the choice has been intelligently made.

More Lurid Aspects of Wrestling

The banning of battles royal and women performers from local wrestling mats by the Edmonton Boxing and Wrestling Commission seems to be an unwarranted bit of interference with a lively form of entertainment that pleases most people and harms nobody.

So far as battles royal are concerned, the Commission is evidently exercised over the fact that these brawls sometimes take in members of the audience.

Audience participation is an old gag in stream-lined wrestling shows. But if the Commission objects to the extension of hostilities to paying guests, a little stricter police supervision or even the threat of it, would probably curtail the dangers inherent in any such development.

There are those who say that women wrestlers degrade womanhood, and that the spectacle of women wrestling each other about the ring derogates from the respect due womanhood.

All we say is that some females can find many ways of degrading womanhood without climbing into a wrestling ring, and that if two husky girls find delight in summing each other up, neither need trouble harm is done except in the minds of the puritans.

We have women acrobats and women participating in every dangerous activity known to man.

What is the difference between acrobats and women wrestling?

For modern wrestling, too, is only a show. Certainly it is not a sport.

Canada Needs More People

There is a perennial debate as to whether Canada needs more people or less, whether we need to support more people and whether a larger population would provide better conditions or poorer standards.

This year a special meeting was held at McMaster University, attended by some 30 experts in different phases of the subject, and a full report is expected to be released by next year.

Meanwhile it is interesting to find that considerable thought is not only available for additional immigrants, it is pointed out that improved farming conditions mean that fewer immigrants are needed on the islands but that there are still many areas where new settlements could be established.

First on this list are the sub-arctic areas of the Yukon, Northwest Territories, and the Peace River area, the clay belt of northern Alberta and Quebec, central British Columbia, the Yukon Valley and the middle and upper Mackenzie basins.

Second on the list are the areas all found by Prof. George H. T. Kinnear, who has shown that they are suitable for new settlers.

Commons Begins Official Business

Expenditures, Income Tax
To Receive First Attention

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—(CP)—Parliament got down to business yesterday after reading of the Throne Speech and estimates for Canada, along with supplementary ones for the province of Newfoundland, were reintroduced.

The estimates were placed before the last session of parliament earlier this year but not passed. The estimates total $2,237,678,181, an increase of $271,469 over last year.

The Newfoundland estimates of $55,126,018 are supplementary to those for the rest of Canada and result from the fact that Newfoundland did not become a province until the end of March, after other estimates had already been introduced.

TRADITIONAL BILL

Prime Minister St. Laurent officially opened business proceedings in the house when he introduced a traditional bill on oaths of allegiance.

He then suggested that the House proceed on a plan to take up the throne speech debate on Monday, Tuesdays and Thursdays while leaving Tuesdays and Fridays for government business.

It was learned the government plans early introduction of legislation to abolish appeals to the Privy Council which would be followed by a reorganization of the budget.

The budget was among measures unpassed when the last parliament prorogued in April. Until it does find its way through the legislative mill, income tax reductions and other measures will not become law.

TAX REFORMS

For instance, one matter that awaits passage of the budget is that of refunds for some 750,000 Canadians who are strikers from income-tax bills by increases in exemptions.

The last parliament voted $200,000 as interim supply so that the government could carry on until the new parliament was convened and got around to voting on supply for the whole year. The money was to last until Sept. 30.

Prime Minister St. Laurent indicated yesterday that he doesn't think the House will pass supply before the end of this month.

He will ask the commons today to vote further interim money to keep the wheels of government turning.

A motion was introduced by Prime Minister St. Laurent and seconded by George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader.

HONORARY OFFICER Adopted unanimously, it makes Dr. Arthur Beauchamp, recently retired clerk of the house, an honorary officer of the House with privileges to take a seat at the clerk's table on special occasions.

Better School System Is Aim

FREDERICTON, N.B., Sept. 16.—(CP)—LaZerte report in hand, the Canadian Education Association may be expected to revive a betterment of Canada's schooling system.

The association yesterday wound up its 30th annual meeting, three days in which the 300 delegates discussed all sides of education in the dominion and adopted a report on the teaching profession as its program of future action.

FRANK PICTURE

This 137 page volume of facts and figures proved the most popular of the convention agenda. Its frank picture of present teaching conditions in Canada is supplemented in this suggestion which would raise the profession to the ideal state—"a goal to strive for," said Dr. M. E. LaZerte of Edmonton, the vigorous, keen-eyed man who directed the job of assembling all the data it contains.

Resolutions approved by delegates at the concluding session included one commending the National Film Board for its continued interest in the visual aid needs of schools. The association urged that the board be asked to produce more films including a series dealing with Canadian occupations.

CORRESPONDENCE PLAN

The convention also passed a resolution dealing with correspondence education. It recommended that consideration be given to the feasibility of employing itinerant auxiliary teachers, and the use of correspondence materials by regular class rooms.

Next annual meeting of the association will be held in Victoria.

The honor was in recognition of Dr. Beauchamp's long service and his contribution to the design of procedure in the Commons.

Members joined to express regret at the recent death of Senator Ian Mackenzie of British Columbia.

By-products of corn include yeast, gluten, dry wet starches, corn oil, sugar, glycerin, salad and other oils.

MYSTERY MURAL is seen by diners in Washington restaurant near White House. Enlargement (left) of a navy aerial view of Washington had been suppressed but turned up on cafe wall. The picture was made by navy Banshee jet fighter 48,446 feet above the capital. Restaurant owner said it was given him by unidentified naval officer.

Canada's Top Atom Men Go To Washington Talks

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—(CP)—Trade Minister Howe plans to take the government's top defence and civilian scientists with him to Washington for tri-nation talks which Canada hopes will lead to revival of a formal agreement on exchange of atomic information. They start Tuesday.

The former agreement lapsed in 1948. There has been any official statement that exchange has been difficult since but the current situation is not believed to be entirely satisfactory.

However, Mr. Howe has denied that Canada has said "no" to grain in Washington.

Dr. O. M. Soland, chairman of the Defence Research Board, and Dr. C. J. Mackenzie, chairman of the Atomic Energy Control Board, it was learned, are slated to accompany the cabinet's expert on the atom. Another side will represent the External Affairs Department.

UNUSUAL MIXTURE

Such a mixture of defence and atomic matters is unusual for Canada which has devoted atomic activities to peaceful pursuits and which has declined to go into atom bomb production. But informed quarters saw no undue significance in Soland's presence.

Mr. Howe was reported as feeling that when the defence aspects of atomic energy came up at the American-British-Canadian talks he should have with him the Canadian best qualified to advise him.

Announcement of the talks coincided with the opening of a new parliament which will hear major debates both on atomic energy and defence.

DEFENCE STATEMENT

Defence Minister Claxton is preparing a formal statement, a white paper, on defence which is the one he gave parliament two years ago. It is not expected to make any sensational disclosures but will discuss the policy and strategy behind defence activities and what Canada is doing to train, equip and maintain the force.

Mr. Claxton also has prepared a statement in anticipation of an opposition attack based on critical press reports about the recent exercise Eagle.

"The speech from the throne today said 'special attention is being given to defence research and development intended to provide the forces with the most modern equipment available for present requirements.'"

Trade Mark Is Planned

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—(CP)—Canadian goods of the future may bear a new kind of government trade mark consisting of top-level quality if government legislation expected to be introduced during the current session is adopted.

Introduction of the legislation was forecast yesterday in the speech from the throne. The bill will be known as the national trade mark and true labelling act.

The government started introduction of a similar bill during the last session. It first failed to pass on the floor of the senate and passed. Parliament prorogued before the bill came before the commons.

The regulation involves a special kind of government mark, design of which still is in the embryo stages, which can be used voluntarily by manufacturers meeting government specifications.

MUNNEDOSA, Man., Sept. 16.—(CP)—Andrew Sanderson, pioneer Minnedosa district farmer, got 106 bushels of barley from one and one-half acres of land, or a rate of 108.2 bushels to the acre. This may be a Canadian record.

This was reported yesterday by implement dealer Bert Smith, who returned from Sanderson's farm three miles from here today.

Sanderson, who came to farm here 43 years ago from Sweden, broke the land in July 1948.

Ceylon Bans Novel

COLOMBO, Ceylon, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Ceylon police, acting on advice from the attorney-general, are taking steps to ban entry and sale of Norman Mailer's war novel, The Naked and The Dead.

Charges that the book is obscene touched off a controversy in the press.

Indecent Assault Brings Deportation

TORONTO, Sept. 16.—(CP)—Borislav Grabovac, 25-year-old Serbian displaced person who studied philosophy and music at European schools, will be deported soon for indecent assault on a woman and for having dismised of an appeal in criminal appeal court yesterday, his charges that the book is obscene touched off a controversy in the press.

Announcement of the talks coincided with the opening of a new parliament which will hear major debates both on atomic energy and defence.

Indians Slap Down Yankees By 10-6

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(AP)—New York defence collapsed yesterday, the Yankees committing five errors, and Cleveland Indians made the most of the mistakes as they rolled up a 10-6 triumph.

The setback cut the Yankees' American League advantage over Boston Red Sox to 2½ games. Red Sox, along with the rest of the major-league teams, were idle.

Turner said he thinks this will be his last year of football.

Bob Lemon received credit for his 20th victory but needed help from big Al Benton in the eighth when the Yanks threatened to pull the game out of the fire.

The Indians spotted the Yanks two runs in the first inning before Cleveland reached any pay dirt against Allie Reynolds.

Cleveland loaded the bases in the third without a hit and before a man was retired. Hinzon's error, a fielder's choice, a sacrifice and a second fielder's choice jammed the bases.

Dale Mitchell grounded out, en route scoring on the play. Lou Boudreau followed with a single to right to score Jim Hegan with the tying run but Mickey Vernon grounded into a double play to end the rally.

DOBY HOMERS
Larry Doby smashed his 22nd homer in the sixth inning to break the tie and the Indians were never headed. They slammed Reynolds for five runs in the eighth ending to take a commanding 8-2 lead.

Victory enabled the Indians to regain third place from the idle Detroit Tigers, 6½ games back of the Yanks.

Junior Grid Game On Again — For Sure

Edmonton's junior football league will get off to a shaky start at Clarke Stadium Sunday.

Contrary to previous reports that the game wouldn't be played, Maple Leafs will face EAC in the opening contest at 3:00 p.m.

An appeal to the senior Eskimos for equipment went unheeded, leaving both clubs short of playing gear. Stuart Bird, however, offered some equipment belonging to the high schools for the weekend game.

Senior Eskimos granted each squad $500 for new equipment, but teams are still awaiting shipments from out of town.

Date for the provincial final at Clarke Stadium was decided yesterday at a meeting at the Recreation commission building. North-south winners will meet Saturday, Oct. 15, at Clarke Stadium.

With a full team ready for action, EAC is still without a manager, the team arranging their own practice time and doing all the headwork necessary.

Remember: Game time, 3 o'clock Sunday.

NON-OPTION FANS STILL ON OUTSIDE

Edmonton Exhibition Association, sponsor of Flyers of the Western Canada Hockey league, mean to continue to the hit the option system of ticket disposal this coming season, it was disclosed yesterday.

"There won't be any general sale of tickets," Jim Paul, Exhibition Association manager stated.

"Right now we have four and five applications for every new seat that has been made available as a result of the renovating done to the Arena."

New seats number 1,172, bringing the total seating capacity of the ice-palace to 6,584.

Early announcement will be made regarding picking up of options. But it looks like another tough season ahead for those who aren't fortunate enough to possess an option.

Amateur Suspension May Hit Lewicki

REGINA, Sept. 16.—(CP)—Al Pickard of Regina, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, said today there is "no doubt" that the C.A.H.A. will suspend Danny Lewicki if it is asked to do so by Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League.

Lewicki, under contract to Toronto, made the NHL, was quoted as saying that he doesn't intend to turn professional this season and he does not wish to play hockey in Toronto.

SUSPENSION-MAYBE
Mr. Pickard said that if Lewicki refuses to accept a professional contract, about the only way the club may ask Campbell to suspend him from professional hockey, Campbell would ask the C.A.H.A. to suspend him also.

If the conditions are as set out—and we have no reason to believe they are not—the C.A.H.A. would suspend Lewicki.

Lewicki is under a "C" option to Toronto, and has more than 15 years left.

Lewicki's general manager Conn Smythe said some time ago that Lewicki wouldn't play at all unless he played hockey under the Maple Leaf organization this year.

UNDER OPTION
Lewicki was asked last winter to line up with Toronto Marlboros, but the Ontario team was not interested. He finally joined with Stratford Krohnets.

Mr. Pickard said earlier that any question of transferring Lewicki from Stratford to the Marlboros would be one for the O.H.A. to decide. He was subject to registration.

Grid Eskimos Entrain For Queen City
First Edmonton senior football team to hit the road in 1949 headed east via CNR last night, immediate objective Regina while a second supporter scheduled later for Winnipeg.

Coach Annis Stukus' Eskimos take on Regina Saskatchewan Roughriders in the Queen City Saturday afternoon. The game is set for Winnipeg, Monday night.

"For the most part we're in good shape," Stukus said before leaving his squad aboard the cushions for the overnight trip to Regina. Team was to lay over in the Hub City this morning for some six hours, before proceeding to Regina.

Biggest question mark was half-back Chuck Fenech. The former Los Angeles Don triple-threat star was given a tough passage in the game against Winnipeg at Clarke Stadium a week ago. While sparking a loss to a 14-11 conquest of Blue Bombers, Fenech received a groin injury, and as well suffered a broken nose.

It was reported last night that an operation had been performed on the Fenech's proboscis. But broken nose on Fenech was optimistic.

"Win one game?" he repeated a query. "We might even win a couple."

Including players, coach Stukus, manager Al Anderson, trainer Bert Toul, and a number of newspapermen, the Eskimo party numbered close to 45. Many of the players were for hitting the hay as soon as they got to their special cars.

Big Shake-Up Rumored For Chicago Cubs' Front Office

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Reports keep trickling in that a shake-up is due in Chicago Cubs' front office before next season—and maybe that a natural for an eighth-place club that already has changed managers once this season.

Latest story is that Charlie Grimm will be made director of the Cubs' farm system, which hasn't produced much under Jack Sheehan, and that Red Smith is out as "advance man" in the trading market. Only evidence so far is that Gene Lanning, an experienced farm hand, has been moved into Chicago as Grimm's assistant.

Indication of how the various clubs regard the tight pennant race was that New York Yankees sent three men, including Yankee Stadium Superintendent Charlie McManus, to yesterday's World Series meeting while the others had only one apiece. Detroit, also invited, declined with thanks.

Harry Geisel, former American League umpire who thought he had retired from the arbitration business several years ago, now finds he didn't.

Governor Henry F. Schickler of Indiana recently named Geisel as a member of the state board of arbitration to settle a dispute between a union and a bus company. Geisel probably will be the picture of frustration if he finds somebody else calling strikes.

Juvenile Playoff

In event teams are forced out of Red Deer, games will be played at South Side Athletic grounds. Balance of series will be played at Drumheller.

In a semi-windup, George Westfall of Twin Falls, Idaho, won by fifth-round technical knockout over Jimmy Ego of Edmonton.

Germany has a small farm, located at Herxheim.

Assessors' Meet Planned in City

Alberta Group Will Open
Sessions Here October 3

Assessment officers from seven Alberta cities will open their annual meeting at 10 a.m., October 3, in the council chambers, civic block, according to John Pollock, assistant city assessor and secretary of the organization.

Power Output Shows Drop

A decrease has appeared in city power consumption.

From a 10 per cent increase over last year's figures, which has shown up regularly in output figures for the last few months, the increase for the week ending Sept. 11 slipped back to 4.5 per cent.

But it has not greatly affected the Jan. 1 to Sept. 11 overall increase over 1948, which still stands at 10 per cent.

Power sold for the week ending Sept. 11 amounted to 2,500,000 kilowatt hours, compared to 2,172,300 in the same week last year.

FARMER VISITS NORTH SITE

Operator of a 1,000-acre farm at Brimley, Sask., Robert Fullerton, Fullerton, California, arrived in Edmonton today following completion of a five-day tour of the city.

Mr. Fullerton makes two trips annually to his Saskatchewan farm, coming north for seedling and harvest seasons.

He acquired the farm more than 40 years ago, and resided on it for three years. Then he went to California and has resided at Pasadena since.

Bank Head Visits City During Tour

Bank sales in Canada this year are 12 per cent ahead of last year, according to H. S. Vinton, Toronto, vice-president, Bank of Toronto.

Accompanied by V. D. Toney, Vancouver, western supervisor, Mr. Vinton arrived in Edmonton yesterday to attend a luncheon conference of branch managers.

Report revealed that increased purchase of bank products will be delayed until November. This recommendation was made because advertising equipment can only be installed in summer when buildings can be off, and become more use before it is being converted to gas this fall.

Also dealt with at the luncheon were washed out roads in the district, and heavy duty caused by work in the city.

Further expansion of branches is not contemplated in Alberta at present. Recently a branch of the bank was opened at Mayerthorpe.

Today he will visit the office at Leduc and Redwater, his last stop in Edmonton before the discovery of oil in the Leduc field two years ago.

Canadian Purchases From Britain Urged

Canadians can make a great contribution to Britain's dollar problem by buying British goods, J. S. Duncan, CMG, Toronto, president of Massey-Harris Company Ltd., stated here yesterday.

Canadians can really "get their teeth into the British monetary problem through these purchases. It is the biggest way to help the British and also to preserve the market for Canadian exports, he said.

Mr. Duncan is attending a Dominion-wide conference of branch managers being held at the company's branch here, Massey-Harris from Kingston, N.B. to Victoria, B.C., attending.

Also, with Mr. Duncan is W. K. Hupley, Toronto, vice-president of the company, and John Martin, Toronto, director of publicity.

No recession will occur in Canada, according to Mr. Duncan. There will be some falling off from the peak of business during past few years, but no recession, he said.

CO-OPERATION SEEN
Co-operative spirit of officials at the Washington dollar conference, will go a long way toward a solution of this problem, but cooperation of the public is also needed.

There will be some falling off from the peak of business during past few years, but no recession, he said.

Synod Puts Back Any Major Action

Church Beliefs Unshaken
After Vigorous Debates

HALIFAX, Sept. 16.—(CP)—The Church of England in Canada, its beliefs unshaken by vigorous internal criticism, has ended its 17th general synod without making any major changes in its constitution.

Priest Pleads Innocent To Dope Charge

MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—(CP)—A 45-year-old Roman Catholic priest said in a handwritten confession that he had been charged with possession of heroin worth $30,000 but pleaded innocent to charges of illegal sale of narcotics.

The appearance of 48-year-old Rev. Arthur Taillefer followed the sensational disclosure by Royal Canadian Mounted Police that a cache of heroin worth $30,000 had been found in a public baggage-luggage station at Montreal's Windsor station, and two men arrested.

It was the largest narcotics seizure in Montreal's history of peddling and racketeering in drug. RCMP officers described the Arthur Taillefer arrested as a Roman Catholic priest of Montreal. The other man was identified as Michel Sano, 35, of Montreal.

Four hours after the arrest of Father Taillefer and Sano, RCMP announced that two more men had been arrested in connection with the case. They are Rene Delisle, 48, and William Lamy, 52. Delisle was charged with conspiracy to distribute drugs while Lamy was charged with possession of heroin.

Inc. Brady of the RCMP said Lamy and Delisle would be arraigned this morning on the drug charges "possibly more."

Inc. Brady said when arrested Lamy was in possession of one ounce of heroin worth about $2,500 and considered by police to be a large amount for a single person.

NAME ONLY
Father Taillefer, vicar of the parish of St. Madeleine D'Ouistre in Greater Montreal's north end, was identified only by name, with no reference to ecclesiastical title, at his appearance before Judge Gerald Almond.

Since also pleaded innocent of the same charge, appearing with Father Taillefer.

Both men were ordered into custody on a three-day verbal remand and trial before a judge alone, which both men elected, was set for Sept. 22.

HUG 'N' KISS is reward of Philadelphia police sergeant Philip Coleman kidnapped Jan. 1963, 5, Trenton, N.J. to whom he found alive and well. A 35-year-old man is held. He admitted keeping child in his car overnight.

Mackenzie King Feels 'Free Man' at Opening

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—(CP)—It was a nice, relaxed day for Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King. For the first time in two decades, he had no responsibilities in the opening of parliament.

Freed from cares of state, he was seated in a barbers' chair in a downtown hotel yesterday when discovered by a reporter. Mr. King was getting "the works" from Paul Bedi. "Tense, but fairly relaxed," he was looking genial.

"I've been thinking over the past few years," he said, "and what a difference it is this morning to feel a free man, large living room with marble fireplace, large living room with marble fireplace, large living room with marble fireplace."

However, the 76-year-old former prime minister was in no mood to miss the opening. As a private citizen, he was entitled to a seat on the floor of the senate during the ceremony and was "happy" to attend.

Instead of being in the chair occupied by Prime Minister St. Laurent, however, at the immediate right of the throne, Mr. King sat far down the chamber.

Old-Timer Dies
HALIFAX, Sept. 16.—(CP)—Laurel (Monty) Laing, 79-year-old motion picture projectionist who screened the first movie in Halifax 42 years ago last night, died yesterday. He was a projectionist for 25 years before he entered other business.

Prime Minister Asks Meet On Change of Constitution

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—(CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent yesterday requested all provincial premiers to meet with the federal government to seek agreement on ways of amending the constitution to establish within Canada "full and final responsibility for all our national affairs."

In a letter sent to the premiers, Mr. St. Laurent suggested that a dominion-provincial conference be held after the current session of parliament. However, if the provincial governments wanted it a year, immediately by federal-provincial constitutional experts.

LETTER TABLED
The prime minister tabled in the Commons a copy of the letter to Premier Front of Ontario and Premier Duplessis of Quebec. Similar letters, he said, were sent to the other eight provincial leaders.

Earlier, the government gave notice in the speech from the throne that it will ask the United Kingdom parliament for the right to amend the constitution in relation to such matters which do not come within the jurisdiction of the provinces.

Mr. St. Laurent said in his letters that the government only wants authority to amend the constitution on a federal national level. He did not want to interfere with the rights and privileges of the provinces.

It also did not want to infringe on existing constitutional rights and privileges which deal with education or the use of the English and French languages.

Mr. St. Laurent said that means of raising the country of the necessity of going to the United Kingdom parliament every time it wanted the constitution amended have been considered by the government for some time.

Such a procedure did not accord with the status of Canada as a fully autonomous nation, that we should be obliged to have recourse to the parliament of another country—however close our association with that country—to determine our own affairs.

U.K. WANTS CHANGE
Moreover, it had been made "increasingly clear" to the government, the prime minister said, that the U.K. parliament did not want "the existing anomalous situation" perpetuated any longer than was "absolutely necessary."

Mr. St. Laurent said he realized that a "satisfactory method of making all kinds of amendments will not be easy." That was one of the reasons for the need of a dominion-provincial conference.

Federal government power to amend the constitution would give the provinces the same jurisdiction over "purely federal aspects of our constitution" that the provinces already possess over provincial constitutions, the prime minister said.

He assured the premiers the government would give "express assurance" that provincial rights and jurisdiction and historic rights of minorities would have "legal protection."

SEES DIFFICULTIES
Mr. St. Laurent indicated the difficulty to be encountered is that sometimes constitutional amendments may be required in the "national interest" which concern both federal and provincial authorities.

That is why some means had to be found to get agreement that such amendments could be made. The aim of the federal government was to reach agreement as soon as possible on method of constitutional amendment which would relieve the U.K. parliament of "an embarrassing obligation" and establish within Canada "full and final responsibility for all our national affairs."

CO-OPERATION URGED
That was why the federal government was "inviting the co-operation" of all the provincial administrations. The Dominion-provincial conference could be called "at an early date after the conclusion of the session of parliament."

"If the provincial governments should desire, meanwhile, to have a preparatory conference of constitutional experts, we would be ready to have federal officials participate," Mr. St. Laurent said.

CALGARY HAS RUSTLERS YET

CALGARY, Sept. 16.—(CP)—Rustlers may have come off the range in practice their "trade" in the city.

"Mike Podewil" of Calgary reported to police yesterday the possible theft of a pair of horses which he tethered in front of his home near the city outskirts last night.

Reds Kill Dane At Russ Border

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 16.—(Reg.)—Russian guards at the Finnish-Russian frontier last month shot and killed a Danish student who crossed into Soviet territory, the Danish foreign office said last night. The Danish minister in Moscow reported that the student, on a holiday tour, had refused to obey an order to stop and was shot while trying to get back across the frontier to Finland.
